The car park referred to in the following instructions is situated in David Street at the rear of the premises. It is a secure private car park surrounded by black metal fencing with gold tops and you will see the sign for The Blind Society above the rear door. It is fairly large and easy to see.

Travelling from the North (Morpeth - Ashington etc)

Take the A1 or Spine Road and onto the Tyne Tunnel Road to its junction with the Coast Road, at the Silverlink retail and Business Park, turn right at the roundabout onto the Coast Road and travel towards Newcastle, take the second slip road and follow the signs for Wallsend Town Centre and Segedunum Roman Museum, this is Station Road. Travel south towards Wallsend. As you approach Wallsend you will pass through the traffic lights at the Buddle Art Centre on the left. On the right is Supasnooker and then an office block adjacent to which is a BT Exchange, turn right into David Street between the BT building and the church, the car park is on your left within thirty yards.

Travelling from the south through the Tyne Tunnel

Follow the signs to Wallsend and Segedunum Roman Fort Museum. When you see the Watch Tower and the Museum, turn right at the traffic lights into Station Road and head towards the town centre, you will pass the metro station; go straight ahead over the lights past the shops and the pub. Turn second left into David Street after the church, the car park is on your left within thirty yards.

Travelling from Newcastle
